We have extensive experience and expertise in the management of multi-national complex claims, working for London and Lloyd's Insurers, and international insurers/re-insurers.

Concordia Legal Ltd

Concordia has considerable in-house insurance and legal expertise, as well as practicing expert witnesses, mediators and specialist associates.

These resources enable us to provide our clients with tailored and appropriate assistance in areas including expert reviews, single joint expert, expert determinations, arbitration support, mediation and ADR services.

Our in-house legal team support Concordia's activities and can provide a fully integrated service to our insurance market clients.

Concordia Compliance Ltd

Using our detailed and extensive expertise and insurance experience we can provide our clients with tailored and appropriate assistance in areas including Coverholder Reviews, Technical Reviews, Financial Audits, Process Reviews, Performance Analysis and Service Provider Reviews.

Concordia has carried out compliance assignments recently for major international insurers in UK, India, Spain and Thailand. This work has included complex reviews and CAT loss event support.

Concordia Risk Ltd

Concordia provides risk review solutions, risk analysis, and can manage technical or process specialists within our risk assessment team. We seek to understand the Policyholder's business model and strategy. This enables the processes and organisation's direction to be better understood especially in the event of complex losses.

Recent risk review assignments have been carried out in the offshore energy, marine and telecommunications sectors.
